CHURCH CHIMES.

—The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church has voted to open the doors of its seminaries to Negro theological students.

—At Kokomo, Ind., a youth climbed a tree, not like Zaccheus his Lord to see, but to get a better view of the process of immersion, being performed, and falling broke his neck.

—"The St. Louis Cyclone" was Rev. J. T. Sharrard's sermon Sunday, in which he said that God and not the devil causes such calamities and that more good came of them than evil.

—During a meeting of the Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Middletown, O., Rev. Andrew Popp, Stanton, Ind., and O. T. Kobitz, Hopeville, O., got drunk and were fined in the police court for being disorderly. They were at once expelled from the synod.

—Bill Collins, a Whitesburg bully, with a grudge against Rev. Wesley Collins, a Baptist preacher, said to his crowd "Watch me eat him up." He made the attempt, but a second later was lying unconscious upon the ground, with two front teeth missing and his face badly bruised. He was no match for the muscular divine.

—The Christian church is using various means to secure $100,000 for missions during this conventional year. Secretary A. McLean says: "There is a gain of $1,269.20 for the first 13 days of May. The whole amount received since October 1 amounts to $54,904.12 or a gain of $10,444.92 over the same time in 1895.

—Says the Pineville Courier: The Rev. Godbey, who came heralded by a brass band and flaming posters, after making a rant or two in weak imitation of Sam Jones and other celebrities, suddenly folded his tent like the Arab and silently stole away from town, after making an appointment. Simply because the people of Pineville refused to be carried away by his antics and cavortings and come out in great droves to hear a rushing, mighty wind, full of sound and signifying nothing, he gets in a huff and says he will go where people will appreciate him, and the Methodists are feeling badly over it.

—This is what the Rev. J. N. Hall says in the Western Recorder of the Sanctification people, whom we find to be the most illiberal and uncharitable set that ever lived: The sanctified folks nearly all got mad at me whenever I say out right plainly what I think of their sweet delusion, and this very fact makes it doubtful about their perfection. I think this sanctification craze is a delusion of the devil, and silly souls are being ensnared into it by his artful deceptions so as to hurt their influence in the world, and to this extent cripple the work they might otherwise do. The Bible positively asserts that there are none good, no one; that there is not a just man on earth that doeth good and sinneth not; that if we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us; that if we say we have not sinned we make God a liar and his word is not in us; the Savior taught his disciples to pray for the forgiveness of their trespasses; and no servant of God in all Bible history ever made such a ridiculous claim that he was sinless. The thing is a modern invention, and the devil is at the bottom of it, and mightily nearly all through it. It may be possible that some honest people have been deluded by him into this snare, but the man that goes over the country parading himself as sinless, and telling others that they must have this sanctification to keep them from being lost, is the shrewdest hypocrite. Beware of such teachers, for they bring in damnable heresies, accompanied with swift destruction. If you tell those sanctified folks about this they will all be mad at me, and lose what little sanctification they have got.

A SPLENDID APPOINTMENT.—Gov. Bradley under authority of the law to appoint trustees for the house of reform provided by the last legislature, has appointed Mr. W. P. Walton, the able and honest editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, as one of the trustees for the institution when it goes into operation. This is one of the appointments that will meet with no unfriendly criticism. In the State there is no more capable, honest and admirably qualified citizen for the place than W. P. Walton. There will be no jobs nor scandal connected with that institution so long as Will Walton is one of its guardians.—Bowling Green Courier.

The above is from the pen of our old friend, Dr. John D. Woods, from whom we appreciate a compliment more than from any living man.

MT. XENIA.—Aunt Mary Ann Dawson is very low. She could recognize but very few of the neighbors yesterday afternoon. A Christian Endeavor was organized at the school-house Sunday afternoon with 10 members. Miss Sallie King was elected president; H. R. Mills vice president, Miss Pearl King, treasurer and Mrs. H. R. Mills secretary. Everybody invited to attend. The society meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. Come and bring your beaux.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The Catholics of this county had services at the court-house Sunday.

—Rev. T. H. Campbell, the Baptist minister, exchanged pulpits Sunday with Rev. W. P. Nelson.

—Miss Margaret Mason entertained Thursday evening in honor of her two visitors, Misses Nina Atkinson and Lena Letcher, of Henderson.

—The Methodist ladies made $10 Saturday by the refreshments served. The good women meet with success every time they serve a lunch.

—The alarm of fire Friday drew a large crowd. It proved to be the residence of Mr. Clifton Anderson, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

—Lewis D. Mitchell, a Garrard county young man, won the second medal in the contest at Covington. As he is a pupil of Miss Amanda Anderson, it is natural she should feel much pride in his honors.

—L. Hudson bought a horse of Luke Montgomery for $100. Sam Murphy sold a horse for $90. Leland Howard bought a combined mare of Jas. Whittaker for $65. R. E. Thompson bought a mare of S. Rigby for $75.

—It is stated that the wool crop is at least 50 per cent. short. The hemp crop reports are far from encouraging. Many of the fields had to be replanted. Since this is considered one of the best paying crops in the county, the outlook is discouraging.

—The musicals given by Mrs. B. S. Gowen's classes Thursday afternoon and Friday evening in the college chapel were highly appreciated and complimented and very satisfactory to the patrons of the school. The progress of the pupils certainly reflects much credit and proves the untiring perseverance, patience and capability of the teacher.

—A union Sunday school convention will be held at Pleasant Grove church next Saturday. Prof. J. C. Lewis, State superintendent of the Normal work, Dr. J. L. McKee and Elder J. L. Allen, of Danville, will conduct the exercises, assisted by the pastors and superintendents of the county. The convention will adjourn to meet in Lancaster at 7:30 the same day.

—Saturday, Decoration Day, was celebrated here with the usual immense gathering. It is estimated that more than 3,000 people were here that day. The crowd began to gather at 7 o'clock and in a short time the streets, business houses, sidewalks and Central Park were alive with a moving, active throng. The day was not only auspicious for the occasion, but the temperature was delightful for the parade, which was in progress the entire day. The usual routine of bicycle races was omitted, but the rest of the day's program was adhered to. The Lancaster Concert Band rendered their choicest music at the Park. The K. P.s had a parade and speeches by some of their members and their addresses, together with the democratic convention in the afternoon, filled the court-house to the utmost with the crowd and still many were upon the outside. The Knights marched to the cemetery at 3:30 to decorate the graves of their comrades. The graves were adorned with flags and lovely floral offerings. To finish the day was the game of base ball on the college grounds.

—The Ladies' Declamatory Contest Saturday evening at the court-house drew a very large audience eager to hear and pass judgment. There were to have been six contestants, but the illness of Miss Alberta Anderson, Lancaster's representative, debarred her from entering the competition. Those who participated were:

Miss Ethyl Beazley, Stanford, subject "Odin's Sacrifice."

Miss Clyde McGinnis, Danville—"Naughty Zell."

Miss Annie Gossett, Cynthiana—"Stella and I."

The judges were Maj. J. E. Allen, Lexington, Miss Mary Holmes Lusk, Hustonville, Prof. Clark, Richmond. The decorations were beautiful and showed that much artistic taste is possessed by the Baptist ladies. Suffice it to say that each contestant crowned herself with glory and each certainly proved to the large, interested crowd that she was a gifted elocutionist of a very high order. After close consultation the judges decided that the beautiful, dainty gem, a diamond pin and necklace, should be awarded to Miss Clyde McGinnis, the youngest speaker of the number, only 13 years old.

—Misses Townsley, of Georgia, and Mary Elkin, of Stanford, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elkin. Miss Annie Gossett, of Cynthiana, is visiting the family of R. H. Bateson. R. E. Hughes and wife, of Lawrenceburg, are visiting relatives. Mrs. Prof. Hagerman and little daughter, Virginia, of the K. U., Lexington, are visiting Mrs. R. M. Campbell. Miss Mary Holmes Lusk, of Hustonville, is the guest of Mrs. Emma Kauffman. J. B. Jennings, of Lebanon, is with his parents. Miss Minnie Horton, of Mt. Sterling, was the guest for several days of Misses Altie and Bessie Marksbury. Brown Cogar, of High Bridge, visited here last week. Mrs. Charles Denman, of Nicholasville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex West. J. S. Francis, of Richmond, has been visiting his parents. Miss Katherine Darnaby, of Lexington, is visiting Prof. E. F. Darnaby. Miss Annie Robinson is visiting relatives in Gallatin, Tenn. Mrs. T. D. Best and daughter, of Hustonville, are visiting Mrs. Charles Norris. Mrs. Thornton Hackley, of Danville, is visiting relatives here.

—The democratic convention was called to order at 2 o'clock Saturday by Chairman George T. Farris. Mr. Farris opened the convention by making an appeal for party harmony. The object of the convention was then stated and Mr. Lynn Hudson, a free silver man, was put in nomination for chairman. Mr. W. I. Williams, a strong gold man, nominated John W. Miller. A division of the house was then called and it became apparent that the convention was entirely in the hands of the free silver men, who claimed it by two or three to one. Mr. Hudson assumed the chairmanship of the convention. Resolutions were brought in by a committee appointed by the chair, which contained no instructions whatever on the money question, but those appointed as delegates are strong free silver men. The delegates are Lynn Hudson, J. M. Dunn, E. W. Norris, T. B. Robinson, G. T. Farris, Alternates, J. W. Glass, R. H. Tomlinson, W. H. Todd, R. H. McGrath, J. M. Rothwell, Alex Doty. When the committee on resolutions reported, the gold faction offered resolutions, which were tabled, and the original resolutions were adopted. The delegates were instructed in the resolutions to vote for Hon. R. H. Tomlinson from the 8th Congressional district and Hon. J. M. Rothwell as a delegate from the State-at-large to the Chicago convention. No instructions were given in regard to the candidates for Congress, although it is known that all the delegates are for Hon. John B. Thompson. A motion was subsequently made instructing the delegates to vote for W. B. Mason for clerk of the court of appeals. The convention then adjourned.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Thomas Hawley, of Brookville, Pa., is wanted for shooting his daughter through the breast when she told him she was going to marry.

—Nordica, the sweet singer who won so many golden opinions at the Cincinnati May Festival, was married at Indianapolis last week to a youth of 20, while she is 38.

—The report is current that Miss Elvira Sydnor Miller, the Louisville Times' bright Tatler, has had her heart captured by a business man of that city and that she will soon give her hand to him. Happy man!

—Before this is printed Miss Eva Buchanan, of Crab Orchard, than whom a lovelier girl never lived, and Mr. A. Addams, clerk of the court of appeals, will have been made one flesh, if reports be true. They went to Cincinnati yesterday it is alleged for that purpose.

DANVILLE THE WINNER.—A large number of Stanford people attended the Young Ladies' Declamatory contest at Lancaster Saturday night. Among them, chaperoned by Mrs. Nannie S. Sauley, of the College, were Misses Mary Bruce, Nettie Wray, Mary Cooper and Delle Feland, Messrs. Elijah and James Beazley, R. M. Newland, George Farris, Dr. A. S. Price, Barnes Wearden, Jack Rout, Joe F. Waters, Sam Menefee and Miss Annie Menefee, Greenberry Bright and Miss Mary Harris, Wallace W. Withers and Miss Norma Bryan, Jack Beazley and Miss Lena Bruce. The court-house, beautifully decorated, where the entertainment was held, was crowded by an enthusiastic audience. With the finest set of instruments in the State, (Conn's make) the Lancaster Cornet Band furnished splendid music which was very highly complimented by all visitors. Miss Mary Holmes Lusk, of Hustonville, looking as radiant as a sunbeam, was one of the judges. The crowd was at sea as to who should receive the prize, a diamond necklace, each contestant proving herself to be a star of considerable magnitude, and the Stanford people were proud of their city's entry, Miss Ethyl Beazley, even though she was not victorious. The excellent chairman, Prof. Darnaby, very kindly invited everybody to attend the elocutionary contest at Walton's Opera House, Stanford, Friday evening, June 19, on which occasion nine contestants will make a brilliant display of genuine talent. S.B.T.A.W.

—The letter carriers' census of Chicago gives that city a population of 1,760,600.

—Judge George B. Eastin, late of the court of appeals, is very ill at Rome, Italy, of congestion of the brain.

—Old Johnston, 2:06 1/2 is turned out and is enjoying a rest while the campaigners are being worked daily.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Of the Lincoln County Democratic Convention.

On the court house steps and promptly at 2 o'clock p. m., solar time, Hon. R. C. Warren, chairman of the Lincoln County Democratic Committee, called the meeting to order and stated the object was to select eight delegates to represent the Lincoln county democracy at the democratic State convention to be held in Lexington on the 31 day of June. Nominations for permanent chairman being in order, J. E. Carson nominated D. W. Vandever; J. S. Owsley, Jr., nominated W. E. Varnon. To ascertain the will of the meeting the following persons were appointed to count the vote: D. F. Logan and S. T. Harris, Emmett McCormack and W. P. Grimes. The Varnon line was ordered to form on Lancaster street and the Vandever men were ordered to form on Main street.

After the count was made the committees reported that W. E. Varnon had received 419 votes and D. W. Vandever 390, whereupon the chairman announced that W. E. Varnon had been elected permanent chairman, who appeared, and after a short speech of thanks called the meeting to order. Election of permanent secretary being in order a motion was made and seconded that E. C. Walton be selected, which motion was carried by a large majority.

J. S. Owsley, Jr., moved that the following persons be selected as delegates and alternates to the Lexington convention: Jesse Lynn, delegate, R. C. Warren, alternate, J. W. Alcorn, del., R. L. Porter, alt., W. G. Welch, del., W. P. Grimes, alt., Dr. H. Brown, del., T. J. Robinson, alt., M. F. North, del., Cicero Reynolds, alt., J. W. James, del., Wm. Stewart, alt., R. H. Bronaugh, del., J. B. Gilkerson, alt., J. H. Carter, del., L. G. Gooch, alt. This motion received a second, when T. M. Goodknight offered as a substitute for this motion, resolutions which omitting the preamble are as follows:

Resolved, That the following democrats of Lincoln county are hereby appointed to represent the democracy of said county in said conventions and to cast the vote of the county in the same, viz: W. H. Johnson, George Carter, Arch Dennay, J. E. Carson, L. L. Dawson, D. F. Logan, F. M. Ware and R. L. Hubble. And if at any time any one or more of the delegates are not present, then such of said delegates as may be present shall cast the entire vote of the county in said conventions on any and all questions coming before same for settlement. Also the following are appointed as alternates: W. D. Weatherford, Z. F. Smiley, Wm. Tucker, W. M. Matheny, J. D. Swope, O. P. Newland, J. W. Givens and D. W. Vandever.

W. G. Welch moved to lay the substitute upon the table, when A. K. Denny was recognized and spoke in favor of the Goodknight resolutions and delegates. A vote was taken on the motion to table it, when on account of size of crowd and confusion the chair, unable to thereby decide whether motion had carried and a count having been demanded by the free silver leaders, ordered a count on the motion to table, and appointed the same tellers who had counted the vote for chairman. Those in favor of the motion to line up on Lancaster street and those against the motion to line up on Main street for a count. The counters having reported that 473 democrats had voted for the motion and none against, the chairman declared the motion carried. The original motion of J. S. Owsley, Jr., was then put to the convention and unanimously carried. Col. W. G. Welch presented the following resolutions and moved their adoption and same being seconded were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1, By the democracy of Lincoln in mass meeting assembled that the democratic administration at Washington is heartily approved and endorsed and especially the administration of the treasury department by the great Kentuckian, John G. Carlisle.

2. That John G. Carlisle is the choice of our democracy for president of the United States.

3. That John S. Owsley, Jr., of Lincoln county, our able and brilliant fellow countryman, is the choice of this democracy for the nomination for Congress from the Eighth district.

4. That if any of the delegates appointed by this meeting and their alternates be not present at the convention in Lexington on June 3d, those who are present are authorized and directed to cast the full vote of the county.

Motion was then made and seconded that the convention adjourn and it was so ordered.

WALLACE E. VARNON, Chm'n.

E. C. WALTON, Secy.

—Editor B. J. Newlon, of the Owen-ton Herald, pays a neat compliment to his old leader, the gallant Col. John S. Mosby, who is dying at San Francisco, of appendicitis.

—Judge R. H. Thompson was chosen right eminent grand commander by the Knights Templar, in session at Richmond. Hopkinsville was selected as the next place of meeting.

W. P. WALTON.

No set of men ever had less cause for bolting than the silver contingent had Saturday. They had been beaten fairly by the count, their nominee for chairman had accepted defeat "like a democrat and a gentleman," as he said, and had advised his followers to do likewise. When Mr. John Sam Owsley, Jr., presented a list of delegates, and Mr. Good-knight proposed something else, a recount was demanded by the silver men, and contrary to sense and reason, but in deference to the will of the minority, the sound money chairman acceded to the demand and it was during the second count, when they saw they were overwhelmingly defeated, that their evident original intention was carried out. The utmost fairness had been observed by the chairmen. The sound money men were wroth with Chairman Varnon for ordering a recount, but it turns out that it was for the best, as no ground is left for a kick on that score. The silver men's claim that republicans were voting with the sound money men could have as easily been applied to them. Several of them who were counted for free silver admit that they voted for Bradley and they doubtless voted for Davison too. Sam Jones never gave utterance to a more patent truism than when he said it is the under dog that howls, and instead of accepting defeat gracefully the silverites laid themselves liable to the application of the adage. It is to be regretted too, for some of those who took part have heretofore done yeoman service for the democratic party and would until then have lent no aid or countenance to a bolt. We hope, however, that they will see the error of their way and in the future do works meet for repentance. If the State and National convention shall adopt a free silver platform and nominate a free silver candidate, the INTERIOR JOURNAL will support both, submitting always to the will of the majority of the democratic party, properly expressed, though we may differ as to its policy. Nothing can drive us from that party. We were born and bred in it and intend to live and die in it. So let us not fall out and fight over a passing and shadowy dream, but whether Owsley, Foree or Thompson be made our Congressional standard bearer, give the full democratic ticket our cordial support. We shall at any rate, for it is written, as for us and our house we will always serve the dear old party.

The president vetoed the Rivers and Harbors raid as was predicted and as he should have done. In his usually vigorous style he shows that many of the items are for local and individual interests, the allowance of which would create a most vicious paternalism and encourage a sentiment already too prevalent among the people, that their attachment to our government may properly rest upon the hope and expectation of direct and especial favors, and that the extent to which they are realized may furnish an estimate of the value of governmental care. Concluding the message suggests that at a time when the issue of government bonds to maintain the credit and financial standing of the country is a subject of criticism, that the contracts provided for in this bill would create obligations of the United States amounting to $62,000,000, no less binding than its bonds for that sum.

We beg the Pantagraph's pardon. The fame of the Hon. A. R. Burnam as a great lawyer has not gotten outside the Madison county limits yet, and we must be excused for not knowing that he is such an able disciple of Blackstone. But able as he may be he is not competent to take Judge Pryor's place and in saying this we mean no disrespect to Mr. Burnam. There is hardly a lawyer in the State of either party who has the brains and legal acumen of Judge William S. Pryor and as large and as powerful as Editor Adams imagines he is, we do not believe he will be able to elect Burnam, even though he says he "means to do it." The people will have a say in the matter, we have an impression.

If the Hon. Josiah Patterson in declining to debate with Mr. Robert Harding, but saying that he would be glad to meet Wat Hardin or Joe Blackburn on the stump, meant thereby to convey the idea that the Boyle county man was not heavy enough for him, he made a mistake. Robert Harding knows more about the currency and other questions of moment than the other two can ever get beaten into their thick heads.

A MAJORITY of the National democratic committee object to the abrogation of the two-thirds rule at Chicago, which has been in vogue in presidential nominations for 42 years. The free silver men want to repeal it so that if they have a majority, which only is necessary to make the platform, they can then name the president. It is to be hoped, however, that time honored rules will prevail.

First reports of the St. Louis cyclone were naturally exaggerated, but even the truth is appalling. At least 500 people were killed, as many more wounded and the property loss is estimated anywhere from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000.

The currency agitation culminated Saturday afternoon in an almost complete victory for the free silver cause, which carried nine out of the 11 districts, and scored 590 of 910 delegate votes in the State convention, which meets at Lexington to-morrow. Three districts, the 2d, 3d and 4th went solidly for silver, while there was a large silver vote in all the other districts but the 5th, which was solid for sound money and the 6th, which gave a small majority for it. The vote in this district, stands 42 for free silver to 32 for sound money. Lincoln, Madison, Boyle, Rockcastle and Jackson forming the latter and standing true to honest money and honest principles. The word "free" caught the voters, like free lunch and free whisky, and away they went pell mell, many of them thinking that the result of Saturday meant that everybody is going to get 16 dollars in silver for every dollar in gold and that money will come to them without labor and without effort. The organization of the silver forces was complete while the sound money men as a general thing were slothful and inert. Blackburn, Hardin and id genus omne are in the saddle again and the sound money victory of a year ago is worse than lost. It was a dark day for Kentucky and democracy, but God reigns and the government at Washington will continue to maintain the public credit and meet every obligation honestly and courageously.

This is a great year for splits in parties. Even the so-called prohibition party is split from stem to stern over the female suffrage and free silver questions. At Pittsburg after these planks were voted down, Gov. J. P. St. John, Helen Gougar and others withdrew and held a rump convention. They will attempt to form a new party, and may the Lord have mercy on their souls.

FREE SILVER WINS.

This is the way the State went:

District	Sound Money	Free Silver
First District	25	75
Second District	25	75
Third District	25	75
Fourth District	25	75
Fifth District	105	85
Sixth District	51	49
Seventh District	33	67
Eighth District	32	68
Ninth District	18	82
Tenth District	20	80
Eleventh District	22	78
Total	399	590

Counties	Sound Money	Free Silver
Anderson	6	6
Boyle	6	6
Carrard	6	6
Jessamine	8	8
Madison	12	12
Mercer	3	3
Rockcastle	4	4
Shelby	11	11
Spencer	3	3
Jackson	1	1
Total	32	42

*Contested.

Jessamine went for free silver by 200 majority, instructed for B. L. Cook for delegate and endorsed Joe Blackburn for president.

Rockcastle endorsed Cleveland, Carlisle and sound money and instructed for Walker and Judge G. W. McClure for district delegates.

Madison instructed for J. Stone Walker for delegate and reaffirmed the last National platform. The delegates are all sound money men.

Shelby, unimindful of its sound money candidate for Congress, voted 1,167 to 726 for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

The silverites numbered 400 to 67 sound money men in the Spencer convention and of course had things in a sling, but didn't throw them, further than to name red hot free silver delegates.

Things were pretty close in Boyle, the sound money men having only a majority of 12 in 1,070, but they had everything their own way and instructed for Charles H. Rodes for delegate. The convention was the stormiest ever seen in the county.

The silver men got in their work in Garrard and ran things according to their own will. R. H. Tomlinson for district delegate and J. Mort Rothwell delegate for the State-at-large were instructed for and a free silver delegation appointed, but no instructions were given on the money question.

Judge J. W. ALCOCK left yesterday via Louisville for Lexington. He will head the regular Lincoln county delegation and if the convention which may think that might be right, should not permit it to be seated, he will have a few words to say about offering a premium to bolters and disorganizers.

With only five votes of Elliott county missing, the free silver majority in the State convention is figured to be 275, with 215 contested votes.

The Courier-Journal of Sunday had reports from every county in the State but Elliott, Knott, Leslie and Perry, the combined vote of which is but 11.

—Eleventh district.—For free silver, Adair, Clinton, Knox, Letcher, Metcalfe, Pulaski, Wayne; for gold, Bell, Casey, Clay, Harlan, Laurel, Owsley, Whitley. Russell gives two votes for gold and one for silver and Laurel has a contest.

POLITICAL POINTS.

—Ex-Gov. S. D. McEnery was elected United States Senator from Louisiana after a long dead lock.

—Miss Guy gets her office, Gov. Bradley said he had all along been of the opinion she was the legally elected State librarian.

—The auditorium, in which the republican National convention is to meet at St. Louis, was only slightly damaged by the storm.

—So far as instructed, the sound money votes and the free silver are the same, 180 each. There will be 910 votes in the National convention.

—The Smith men in Garrard are hot in the collar over the way they were treated by the Davison gang and the party is split wide open over there.

It is said that but for the fact that Gov. Bradley would appoint his successor, Senator Lindsay would resign in the event of his repudiation by the convention at Lexington.

—The prohibition National convention rejected the free silver plank and nominated Joshua P. Levering, of Maryland, for president and Hale Johnson, of Illinois, for vice president. The platform calls for very little besides prohibition, even omitting woman suffrage.

SOMEWHAT LOCAL.

—Mrs. M. M. Wallace, mother of J. Mac Wallace, teller of the Boyle National Bank, is dead.

—Mr. Sim Robinson, formerly of this county, but then in the employ of the L. & N. at Corbin, died suddenly at that place Sunday.

—Gov. Bradley pardoned Dock Vincent, sentenced to fine and imprisonment at Richmond for using obscene language in the presence of ladies.

—John Diggs, a negro, was arrested at Richmond charged with burglarizing Dykes' grocery last Thursday night. He confessed. He has been in the penitentiary four times.

—M. Bradshaw, from New Orleans, who has been under medical treatment at Somerset, was run over and instantly killed at Parker's Lake, on the Cincinnati Southern. His head and arms were cut off.

—The jury in the case against James Crockett, one of the two brothers charged with the murder of Dan Kidd, of Casey, returned a verdict fixing his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life. He did well to save his neck.

—Capt. Henry Wygant drilled the female cadets, of Madison Institute, for the benefit of the visiting Templars last week, and 50 young ladies, dressed in blue skirts with white borders, presented a strikingly handsome picture against the green bluegrass sward over which they marched.

—Gov. Bradley says of the indictment found against him in Laurel: "I own some land of little value in Laurel and reside in Garrard county. I overlooked the law and did not file the description required, but since I came the owner (about 14 years ago) the land has been on the assessment list each year and the taxes paid thereon regularly. The violation, so far as I am concerned, is purely technical."

GO SLOW GENTLEMEN.

Too Early Yet To Announce For Office To the Editor of the Interior Journal.

Since the issue of your paper a few weeks since, stating that I would possibly make the race for sheriff, I have had a great many friends to ask me to announce my candidacy. While I have the matter under favorable consideration, I think it too early to make any announcement and I would advise anyone who has aspirations in this direction, it matters not what office he desires, to go slow, look the field over carefully, consult with their friends and at the proper time the party will indicate who should make these races.

Is this not better than creating strife in the party? It may not set well with many of us, but if we are true blue democrats we will march to the polls, put our shoulder to the wheel and carry the banner of victory by an old time majority. Respectfully J. M. CARTER. Moreland, June 1, 1896.

Liburn Phelps, of the Liberty Tribune talks back at the rascals who have taken his paper and refused to pay for it because they found nothing in it they cared to read: "Such two-legged creatures are nothing but a very low order of animals, and a grunting, wallowing hog is more to be admired than they are. We have no more respect for their opinion than we have for the opinions of a Hotentot. On the other hand we are glad to say that we have the support of the most cultured and intelligent people in the county." The more you know a certain class of people, Mr. Phelps, the better you will like dogs, and you will also find that that class predominates.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE!

LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT.

Pursuant to a judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court, at its October Term, 1895, in this case, the undersigned Comr. will, on MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1896,

In front of the Court-House door, in Stanford, Ky., being the first day of the Lincoln County Court, sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder, the following described real property, to wit: A Tavern House and Lot, known as the Carpenter House, situated at the railroad station in Stanford, Ky., and bounded as follows: On the north by the L. & N. Railroad; on the south in part by an alley between said property and the property of S. G. Hocker, running from Lancaster street to Depot street, and in part by the lot of G. W. Bronaugh; on the east in part by Lancaster street and in part by the lot of G. W. Bronaugh, and on the west by Depot street. Said property will be sold to satisfy the debt of pliff, Jennie P. Carpenter, for the sum of $400, with interest from the 10th day of Oct., 1892, until paid; and the further sum of $400, with interest from the 10th day of Oct., 1892, until paid; the debt of plaintiff, Annie Carpenter, for the sum of $400, with interest from the 10th day of Oct., 1892, until paid; and the further sum of $400, with interest from the 10th day of Oct., 1892, until paid; the last named amount subject to a credit of $142.15 of date Mar. 16, 1895, and a further credit of $61.38 reserved for further litigation.

The said Tavern House and Lot will be sold on a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, in equal installments, bearing interest from day of sale until paid. Bonds with approved security required, having the force and effect of judgments, and payable to the Commissioner. Lien retained.

May 20, 1896. R. C. WARREN, 25 4t Comr. Lincoln Circuit Court.

THE Stanford boys can beat the Lancasters playing baseball, but it seems that they are the only ones they can down. The score Saturday stood 25 to 18 in favor of our boys.

Look at the seven dress patterns in the window of Shanks. They are offered Friday and Saturday next, and Friday and Saturday only, at 39 cents per yard, which is actually less than their wholesale cost.

MISS KATE BLAIN tells us that the first of the series of examinations for white teachers will take place Friday and Saturday next. On account of circuit court the examinations will be held at the public school-house.

ASSIGNED.—A dispatch from Elkton says that J. B. Adams, druggist, made an assignment to Jack M. Russell. Liabilities estimated at $1,500; assets, a stock of drugs. He is a son of Squire L. B. Adams, of this county.

SOME recalc tried to gain entrance thro' the window to Miss Fannie Shanks' room at Mr. S. J. Embury's Sunday night, but Miss Shanks heard him and gave the alarm. An effort was made to trace the scoundrel but it was too dark, the more's the pity.

FOR ASSESSOR.—Messrs. Frank Green, of the West End, J. F. Holdam, of Crab Orchard, and William Moreland, of Stanford, told the INTERIOR JOURNAL Saturday that they were candidates for assessor. There are only eight candidates for the office so far.

MR. G. A. WALTER, of the firm of Carson & Walter, of Kingsville, has bought out his partner's interest and will continue the business at the old stand, with the assistance of his brother, Mr. Wallace W. Walter, of this place. Mr. Carson is undecided as to what business he will pursue.

THE Sunday-school of the Turnersville Christian church will observe "Children's Day" for foreign missions on Sunday, June 7th. All are cordially invited to be present at the exercises which will begin at 10 A. M. and will be followed by a short address on missions by the pastor, W. T. Brooks.

BROOM FACTORY.—Hon. B. B. King and Mr. G. D. Smiley, of Moreland, are busily engaged now managing their broom factory. They are turning out about 10 dozen a day and the quality of them compares favorably with the best made. Mr. King raised 20-odd acres of broom corn last year and the factory will continue to run as long as that part of the material lasts.

WHILE plowing the other day Mr. R. G. Denny found an old pipe that must have been used many years ago. It is cut out of granite in imitation of an eagle, weighs nearly two pounds and was no doubt a gem in the day it was used. It is on exhibition at the Myers House and those desiring to see it can call on Capt. Thomas Richards.

MR. W. S. HILTON, of Junction City, believing that there is a bright future for his town, has recently bought $1,000 worth of ground and will build six comfortable residences on it. When these are completed he will own 14 houses, some of which are the best in the place. Mr. Hilton has probably the largest store-room in Central Kentucky and carries more goods than the average merchant who does business in a town many times as large as Junction City. There are few in this section whose hustling qualities compare with Mr. Hilton's.

UNTIL July 1st, 1896, you can buy anything in our complete stock at actual wholesale cost. W. H. Wearen & Co.

The firm of W. H. Wearen & Co. will dissolve July 1. Mrs. Annie James, who has an interest, will retire, but Mr. W. H. Wearen will be found at his post ready and willing to sell goods as low as the lowest.

JOHN SHIELDS for calling John Green, another Negro, out of his house and cutting him in the side and arms, was taken before Judge Carson Saturday, who thought it best to hold him and let the grand jury take cognizance of him.

THE Negro G. A. R., 16 strong, with drums and file, marched through town Saturday and decorated the graves of their comrades on the west of town, after Rev. Walter Lackey had made an appropriate speech. No other tokens of decoration day were visible here.

FOR SAFE-KEEPING.—The sheriff of Laurel delivered to Jailer G. W. DeBord Sunday morning R. M. Jackson, sentenced for 21 years for murder, and Simeon Tattle for three years, to await the action of the court of appeals in their cases. The jailer now has a pretty good sized crowd with him—11 prisoners.

DON'T NEED HIM.—A fellow, who calls himself J. H. Powell and claims to be from Henderson, wants to come here and expose Pythianism, but if we are to judge him by his circular, he will more expose his ignorance than anything else. This excerpt is a fair specimen of his announcement: It draws like a porous plaster, only more so, and Grays ointment aint a circumstance.

SILVER MEN BOLT

After They Had Been Given a Second Count, and Have a H. O. T.

After the second count was ordered, solely out of deference to their wishes, the free silver men who had all to gain and nothing to lose by the count, were led by the noses by a few would-be bosses to bolt and repairing to the court-house, organized a rump convention by electing D. W. Vandever chairman, who accepted the position, after having talked so prettily in the regular convention about his democracy and his purpose to abide the decision of the majority. He made another speech, quite different from the other and among other things said that he had told Editor Walton that if the sound money men would accept the Goodnight resolutions an amicable adjustment could be reached, but that Walton had spurned the offer, saying, "I'll give you nothing, I'll not give you a cent." The old man did make such a proposition to Mr. Walton, but he made no such silly answer as that, simply replying for himself alone that the sound money men were not fools enough to give up the fruits of a victory that way.

During Mr. Vandever's speech some puppy is said to have said under cover of the crowd that "Walton is a republican any way." Walton did not hear it or he would have branded the liar right there, though it wasn't necessary. The fellow knew as well as the crowd knew that he was lying, willfully and cowardly. But that isn't here nor there.

Mr. Arch K. Denny was called on for a speech and he also spoke. He had never joined in a bolt before, but the other side had acted so outrageously unfair in voting republican Germans and Swedes that he wanted to protest against it and send that protest to the State convention for action. He charged that money had been sent to this county to buy voters, who had sold out in many cases for a very small price. While he was speaking in the same strain George Pulliam rushed up almost out of breath to say that he had seen the sound money men count the same man three times.

It was then remembered that no secretary had been chosen and Josh Swope was proposed and elected. Then a youth, whom we afterwards learned is named Swinebroad, presented a string of resolutions as long as his arm, which had evidently been prepared with a view to the bolt. They declared for free silver at 16 to 1 and wanted it put in the platform in terms too plain to be misunderstood. Hay, of Boyle, and Tomlinson, of Garrard, were instructed for district delegates and a set of delegates to the State convention with alternates named for each appointed and then the rumpers adjourned. We offered to publish the resolutions, but Mr. Swinebroad said he did not have them and Mr. Swope that he would send them to us from Hustonville, which will be seen he didn't do.

A good many free silver men, to their credit be it said, refused to go into the rump convention, but accepted defeat "like democrats and gentlemen" as one orator expressed it but didn't remain true to his words.

Those free silver men who went into the convention Saturday obligated themselves to support the nominee of the democratic party. Should they fail to do so, they will prove themselves not only undemocratic, but unworthy in every particular. Lincoln is for sound money, so let's "shut up" on that subject and fight the common enemy, the republicans.

The sound money men win in Lincoln and a few other counties, but the silver men won the State and what's the use in anybody's kicking. Let us have peace and cease to fight among ourselves.

It continues to rain and make more corn and hay. Sunday night a real soaker came accompanied by an electric storm. Fair, cooler Tuesday, is the present prediction.

T. J. HATCHER is a living example of the efficacy of Quaker Bitters. They cured him as well as others of ailments long standing. Ask Joe F. Waters, J. B. Paxton and all who have tried them, about their healing properties.

FOR SHERIFF.—Mr. James B. Gentry announces himself in this issue as a candidate for sheriff. One of the truest of democrats and a splendid gentleman withal, he ought to and will make a capital race.

THOSE who intend to go on the Stanford Female College Mammoth Cave excursion must give their names to Mr. Nannie Sautley at the College or Mrs. J. S. Wells to-day, in order that arrangements may be made for tickets. The excursion leaves on the 11th and the rate is $10.75, which includes everything.

A row which came near being serious in its consequences was started in the sound money ranks on Lancaster street Saturday by Ben Ferrell, a free silverite, charging that George Benedict was not old enough to vote and accusing him of having sold himself for $5. Benedict called him a liar, when Ferrell struck him and was in turn struck with a rock by Benedict. Officers rushed up and friends of both parties showing signs of interfering, they drew their pistols. A young man named Joe Rice, who afterwards proved to be a deputy, drew also, and Leslie Carter promptly caught the pistol, which was discharged in the ground. Then John Newland took hold of Rice and marched him to jail, where he staid till Constable Benedict claimed that he had appointed him to help preserve the peace. Ferrell is said to have drawn a pistol too and a warrant has been sworn out against him. Things looked pretty squally for a while, but it was soon over.

Since writing the above, which we got from one of the officers, we learn from Mr. Ferrell that the trouble was over a young foreigner, not old enough to vote as he claimed, and that Benedict called him a foul name, when he promptly knocked him down. He had no pistol as he can prove and had no intention of raising a row.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge M. C. Sautley and Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Owsley, Jr., were promptly on hand at 9:30 yesterday morning when the following grand jurors were selected and sworn: J. H. McAllister, foreman; J. F. Gover, L. H. Pryor, Alex. Beazley, Ben Sutton, W. R. Kelley, Thomas Simpson, Reuben Williams, W. P. Grimes, Samuel Duderar, Cam Duncan and T. M. Clarkson.

Judge Sautley delivered the charge and as usual made a very dull requirement interesting. The court house was filled with people, who listened attentively for nearly an hour to him. The things upon which he laid the greatest stress were the duty of the jury to examine the two clerks' offices, the county and police judges' and magistrates' offices and see that the records were properly kept, and the burglary cases, which he charged must be sifted to the bottom, so that no guilty man could escape indictment.

The petit jury is as follows: W. G. Routon, Will Perkins, H. T. Bush, Edmond Murphy, K. L. McClure, G. D. Hopper, G. S. McKinney, J. L. Totten, Sam Holman, G. W. Spangler, J. F. Cash, T. J. Hill, J. W. Carson, G. L. Carter, Wm. Gooch, Charles Dunn, Dr. J. T. Bohon, F. S. Fagley, L. R. Jones, J. J. Spears, E. D. Kennedy, J. F. Holdam, W. O. Alexander, S. W. Givens.

Judge Sautley called over the Commonwealth's docket yesterday and disposed of many of the cases. Adam Trice alone was tried and he was given one year for breaking into S. H. Helm's house and stealing a gun. The 25 indictments against Judge T. L. Shelton for violating the whisky laws were dismissed by decision of the court of appeals. Those against J. H. Baker, for bigamy, Albert Hommel for malicious wounding and Meridy Woodson for disturbing religious worship, were also dismissed, because the defendants had left the State Eph Payne for injuring public property was also dismissed as was also Jordan Perkins for disturbing religious worship. The judge showed irritation at the repeated efforts to continue the case of John Belden for malicious wounding and set it for trial for next Tuesday. A dozen cases were set for trial to-day.
